Your Commitment

- Your attendance at Scholar’s Edge Trainings is imperative to your overall success. These trainings provide a great foundation to what you will eventually be learning in the field.
  - Two Day Training over a weekend in January
  - Production Training Throughout March
  - Three Day Production Training in April
  - You will not need to miss school for any of our training seminars.

- Expect to work harder than you have ever worked before, and in a different way. Depending on your financial goals, the average student will commit 20 hours per week during the preseason, and 70 plus hours per week during the summer. Additionally, a student should spend their full reading week getting their business going.

- Commuting Operators: Operators that do not go to school in their area should make a minimum of two trips home during the preseason to get their business started.

- You will need access to a vehicle. Part-time during the preseason, as you will need to be actively promoting your business in your defined territory. Full-time during the summer.

- We do not pay for your gas, cell phone, or other miscellaneous costs you might have. These costs are tax deductible against your income.

- You will need a cell phone with a plan appropriate for fielding more calls as well as an iPad/Laptop to administer your business.

- You will commit to keep your social media channels up to date and post the required videos and blogs per the competition schedule. Anything you do beyond that is to your benefit!

- Focus and a Positive Strong Belief System: Your success will also depend on your willingness to listen to support and stay the course. There will be many times where you might be unsure or fearful whether something will pay off, or stressed by a particular job. At the end of the day you must trust your District Manager and the preferred practices to help your success. Know that you will have great days and tough days. It is important to keep your focus on your business goal! We will help you get there.

- Your attendance to Scholars Edge events is strongly encouraged and expected of you. Our culture is what defines our company and helps grow our brand. You will have fun participating in various company and charitable events.
